

Inchie Quilts at Houston Quilt Market & Festival!

Will you be at Quilt Market or Festival? I'd love to meet you!

I'll be signing books, doing some Inchie demos, showing Inchie Quilts and just having FUN! And I just might have some yummy German chocolate stashed in my suitcase too! I'm just sayin'!

I will have a few of my brand new InchieSee & InchieDo Viewer Tool & Ruler Sets with me to show and share, just in time for Quilt Market and Festival! They are truly fabulous, and I'm so happy they're now available.

If you can't catch up with me at a time listed below, email me at nadine@nadinerruggles.com, and we'll get together for coffee, or lunch, or dinner! Or even just a chocolate break on the sales floor!

See you there!

Nadine
